

THEY MADE NO CASE

Jack Sadler Was in Luck Yesterday Morning.

ESCAPED A PRISON SENTENCE

The People Failed to Show That He Was Not an Officer—So He Escaped the Charge.

Jack Sadler, who impersonated an officer and arrested a farmer from Paris township last week, was allowed to slip from the clutches of the law very easily in the superior court yesterday morning. Charles Watt, who defended Sadler, tried to quash the information, which was denied. The people then put in their testimony. They proved that Sadler told the farmer that he was an officer, and that he had arrested him, but a most important item of evidence was omitted. They did not prove that Sadler was not an officer. Consequently when the people rested their case Mr. Watt moved to discharge the jury and the prisoner on the ground that the people had not proven Sadler guilty of any crime. Judge Burlingame would not wait for more testimony so the prisoner was discharged.

He Prayed For Mercy.
Cornelius Stouffjesky will work for the state two years. Judge Burlingame gave him a steady job at Ionia yesterday, notwithstanding the fact that Cornelius fell on his knees before the court and implored mercy. He said he was innocent. He called on God to witness it. He said his family wished to get rid of him and had put up a job on him. He was convicted Saturday of stealing $100 from his father's pile of $1,500 or $2,000 which he kept in a drawer at home.

Is Growing Worse.
Bert Smith and Cora McConnell, brother and sister of Eva Schilling, petitioned the probate court yesterday to have Mrs. Schilling admitted to the Kalamazoo asylum. It will be remembered that a similar petition from her husband was dismissed on his promise to take care of her. Mrs. Schilling appears to be growing worse, and her brother and sister now renew the petition to have her cared for.

Will Not Go Before a Jury.
A motion was argued and denied in Judge Adair's court yesterday to have the case of Fred H. Leonard, by F. H. Withy, guardian, vs. Mary Rice tried before a jury. This is the case brought by L. H. Withy as guardian of Fred H. Leonard to have the marriage of Fred and Mrs. Rice annulled. Both Fred and his wife oppose the proceedings.

Minor Court Notes.
The calendar for the September term of the circuit court shows 138 non-jury cases, 24 jury cases, 51 chancery cases, 4 law and impudence and 40 criminal cases. It is one of the largest calendars ever issued by the court.

The final arguments in the James J. McKee examination were made yesterday, but Justice Brown withheld his decision until Thursday. There is little doubt but that he will hold McKee for trial.

John Gardilla and Nicholas Villa were arrested for occupying the sidewalk with fruit stands in violation of the ordinance. They pleaded not guilty and will have a hearing September 25.

Judges Grove and Adair made an order yesterday which fixes the time for holding the terms of court for the next two years, the same as it has been for the past two years.

Thomas Wood was convicted of the larceny of a watch from a dwelling in the day time in the superior court yesterday, and was sentenced to Jackson for two years.

A petition to have Richard Hambrick admitted to the asylum at Kalamazoo was filed in probate yesterday.

Thomas Sawyer's will was admitted to probate yesterday.

The will of Mary Halpin was admitted to probate yesterday.

DR. KILMER'S SWAMP-ROOT CURED ME

D. H. KILMER, M.D., Hulmeville, Pa.

WHEN ALL ELSE FAILED! La Grippe Baffled!

The After Effects Cured

Mr. Binger writes: "I had a bad attack of the Grippe; after a time caught cold and had a second attack; it settled in my kidneys and liver, and Oh! such pain and misery in my back and legs."

The Physician's medicine and other things that I used made no impression, and I continued to grow worse until I was a physical wreck, and given up to die. Father bought me a bottle of Dr. Kilmer's SWAMP-ROOT, and before I had used all of the second bottle I felt better, and to-day I am just as well as ever. A year has passed and not a trace of the Grippe is left. SWAMP-ROOT saved my life."
